

California has changed over the last two decades, but its state of civic affairs remains gridlocked. It's marked by declining civic participation, and an ever-widening gap between those that vote and those that don't – mostly distinguished by race, income and education. That's where we come in.

CAN'T STOP WON'T STOP

Building Progressive Power at the Ballot Box and Beyond

---

Date: March 15-16
Place: Riverside, CA
(location TBA)

A convening of progressive groups reflecting diverse sectors, races, and regions committed to grassroots electoral organizing—an opportunity for training, political dialogue and networking with allies throughout the state and nation.

Topics and Workshops (partial list):

Advanced Trainings for Field Directors and Coordinators

Ballot Watch: What's Next in 2008

Integrating Electoral Work & Community Organizing

California Political Landscape & National Implications

Electoral Organizing with Youth

Boosting Field Programs with Radio and Mail

Promoting Leaders to Run for Office

Strategic Initiatives: Tax and Fiscal Reform

Voter Databases

Working with 501c3, c4 and PACs

Plus: A local campaign learning tour, hosted by Center for Community Action and Environmental Justice (CCA EJ)

Travel & lodging will be provided for Alliance groups and allies.

Registration Deadline: 2/25

Who Should Attend:

California Alliance organizations staff and volunteers

Regional electoral allies

Powered by the California Alliance and Pushback Network. For more information, contact Rudy Gonzalves at (323) 735-9515 or rgonzalves@scopela.org.